

IMS POLICY

We at RLG Systems India Pvt. Ltd. are committed to lead as world class organization for Provision of E-Waste and Plastic Waste Management Solution & Compliance Management to Legal Requirements that are reliable and satisfy our customer requirements;

To accomplish above we will focus on:

- Providing timely services with continued efforts for resource efficiency and costoptimization
- Complying legal, statutory, applicable requirements and considering context of the organization.
- Work towards protection of the environment and prevention of pollution
- Ensure continual improvement in Quality and Environment performance throughmanagement reviews and participation of employees at all levels
- Create a learning organization by adopting industry best practices and risk-based thinking to improve the employee competency, work environment and performance
- The policy is also framework for setting objectives and targets and is communicatedto interested parties. It is reviewed from time to time

Date: 20-10-2021

Place: Noida